

Pat Walsh and Annika

Annika is a Keeshond cross and is handled by Pat Walsh.

Annika's Club highlights:

Annika, now 14 years old has had an illustrious career starting back in January 1992 at our club Fun Day.

A few months later in her first trial she came first and that same year she came 3rd in the Clubs Australian Trian Champion Competition.

In 1993 she came 2nd in the Australian Trial Champion Competition and won in 1994.

She also won the Clubs Agility Dog of the year in 1994 and 1997.

Annika has also represented New South Wales 6 times in the National teams Challenge competitions in 1993,1994,1998,1999,2000,2001, travelling as far afield as Perth, Adelaide and Alice Springs

One of the trophies our Club is proud to be associated with is the Balder Trophy, which is awarded annually to the dog with the top 6 scores out of a possible 15 heats in the NSW Agility Dog of the Year Competition. Annika has won the Balder Trophy 6 times, in 1995,1997,1998,1999,2000 and 2001, an achievement which will stand for many years to come.
